

The State of the Industry the future for cultural research in the university

Day Two
Researching Culture and Cultures of Research
Session One: 9:00am	Trends in international research funding/strategy: Chair: Melissa Gregg Address by Graeme Turner, Convenor, ARC Cultural Research Network Address by Genevieve Bell, Intel Fellow and director of the User Experience Group within the Intel Digital Home Group
BREAK (10:30am – 11:00am)
Session Two: 11:00am	Research today: Chair: Emily Potter Individual research, partnerships and teams (Jean Burgess) Research outside the university (Miriam Lyons – Centre for Policy Development) Research cultures: gender and work/life balance (Maryanne Dever) A brief overview of PhD outcomes in Australia (Terry Evans)
LUNCH (12:30pm – 1:30pm)
Session Three: 1:30pm	Cooperative Cultural Research: Chair: Clifton Evers Who do you serve? (what do community-based organisations, governments, policy groups and the wider public require of cultural research?) (Amanda Wise) Negotiating best practice in cooperative cultural research (sharing resources, funding steps etc) (Tanja Dreher and Lisa Slater) New technologies and literacies in cooperative cultural research (Jason Wilson) Response (Cameron McAuliffe)
BREAK (3:00pm – 3:30pm)
Session Four: 3:30pm	CRN project showcase: Chair: Elspeth Probyn The Listening Project (Justine Lloyd and Kate Crawford) Rural Cultural Research (Kate Bowles) Early Career Researcher/Postgrad program (Emily Potter) Internationalising Internet Studies (Gerard Goggin)
5:00pm	Closing comments
5:15pm	End of conference

Programme correct as at 16 November 2009.
<http://www.uq.edu.au/crn/industry/program.html>